

Minutes of Axe Valley PTFA meeting on 7th November 2016

Meeting held at Emma Heighway's house

Present –Jo Huscroft, Emma Heighway, Louise Wain and Heidi Rorstad

Apologies -?

Autumn concert on Wednesday 16th November

The PTFA are going to sell teas, coffees, soft drinks and sweets during the interval. Jo is going to email Jacky to ask if the canteen will allow us to use their stock on sale or return as we have done previously.

Volunteers to help on the night- Jo and Heidi definitely, Emma if Elizabeth is performing and Louise if we are desperate. To get to school 6/6:30 ish to set up.

Festive Friday 9th December

We all agreed to keep things simple with cheap, quick to make ideas.

Pick a bottle game- all to start saving wine bottles. Also going to do soft drink version with 2litre bottles from Tesco.

Biscuit decorating kits comprising of a Christmas shaped biscuit, an icing pen and selection of small sweets. Heidi and Louise to make biscuits. Emma to lend a cookie cutter if needed. Jo to ask Kate if she has any small, clear plastic bags to put the completed kits in to. To be tied up with ribbon. Heidi can not help on the night.

Raffle-could use the Christmas wine selection left over from the Minster Challenge plus a few other festive items. Louise also said she would happily donate something.

Money made on festive Friday to go towards raffle prizes for Christmas concert.

Christmas concert

Hamper raffle –Jo to ask Jacky if we have any raffle tickets.

We decided we Do Not want to do mince pies and teas at the end as has been done previously as this does not work. Settled on doing non-alcoholic mulled fruit punch and mince pies (possibly some squash for kids). We are going to serve these on the way in instead of at the end. Talked about having fruit in cups ready and the punch warming in a tea urn. We need to find someone at the church to check that this will be allowed. Heidi to see if anyone at the primary school knows who we should contact. Jo to ask Kate P if she has a recipe for mulled punch.

Elizabeth (Emma's daughter) to ask Mr Jevons if he will be having an interval in which we could draw the raffle.

Fashion show

Louise's boss said yes. They have a new teenage range due to come out in March/April so we could look at doing it around Easter time.

Marshal get together

Agreed on meeting up on 1st December at 8pm in the Axe Inn.

Next meeting – 7pm on Monday 28th November. To be held at Jo Huscroft's house.
