Dear Parents and Carers

GCSE Information for Year 10 Parents, Carers & Students

Following the decision a few weeks ago to cancel all exams for this summer, I promised to let you have information, as it became available, about what was happening with the grades for Year 10 from any GCSE qualifications that they were due to complete this year. Since then we have been waiting to hear from Ofqual (the government body responsible for all qualifications and assessments) and the exam boards about what has been decided.

Today they have announced their system for awarding grades for Year 11 students that were due to complete their courses this year, but they have advised us that they are still seeking to determine the most appropriate course of action for students in Year 10 and plan to consult on their ideas shortly. I'm sorry that I can't provide further information at this point, but as soon as we learn something more conclusive about the situation, I will get in touch with you.

Yours sincerely
